FLORIDA'S MIDWINTER FAIR

At Tampa Has Made an Auspicious Opening—Fourteen Counties Present With Exhibits

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 2.—The fifth annual Florida State Fair opened today with every assurance of the greatest success yet attained by these annual expositions. The exhibits are superior to those of former fairs in quantity, quality and attractiveness, and, although it was expected at the outset, that there would be some difficulty in securing exhibits, the exhibit buildings are taxed to their capacity and the display of Florida products is unquestionably the best ever made.
Fourteen counties have county exhibits, as follows, in charge of the gentlemen named:

Washington, Collier Bros.; Columbia, T. J. Appleyard; Gadsden, W. M.
Corry; Alachua, J. W. Tench; Marion, W. D. Carn; Hernando, W. L. Fleming and W. S. Hancock; Pasco, W. E. Embry; Manatee, F. C. Armstrong; Hillsborough, T. M. Weir; Polk, Hugh Wear; DeSoto, Ed Scott; Lee, W. S.
Hanson and J. L. Cutler; Dade, B. B.
Tatum and J. C. Baile; Osceola, W. L.
Van Duzer.

The poultry and live stock exhibits are larger and better than ever. The citrus fruit display is fully 100 per cent greater, and of much higher quality than that of last year.

The fair was formally opened by Governor Albert W. Gilchrist, who was under escort of state troops. A big opening parade moved from the grounds through the principal streets at 9 a. m., in which was included the military and civic organizations, officials of state, city and county, the 50 shows which constitute the Range and the 500 race horses which will participate in the race meeting which is to continue through the fair.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has arrived at Tampa and signal honor is being shown him. Thousands of visitors are here to participate in the various events of Bryan day. The railroad and steam boat lines are offering unusually low rates to Tampa for the fair, and the attendance is expected, like all the other features, to be a record-breaker.

Next week's program at the fair is of wide interest. Monday, February 8, will be naval stores and lumber men's day, with a meeting of representatives of these industries at 10 a. m., to discuss matters pertinent to their enterprises. At 8 p. m. Monday, an illuminated parade of the Range attractions will occur, followed by a confeetti battle. Tuesday will be South Florida day, with speeches by the leading citizens of South Florida in the main building at 11 a. m. A balloon ascension will occur at 5 p. m.
Wednesday will be Jacksonville day, and will also be marked by the state convention of retail hardware men, to meet at the Tampa Bay Hotel at 10 a. m. Thursday Greater Tampa day will be signalled by a civic parade, in which Tampa will "do itself proud." The Tampa Bay handicap will be run in the afternoon and, at special exercises at 1 p. m., prominent Tampans will make addresses. Friday, Lincoln's birthday, will have a special program and the field day sports for the high schools of the state will occur. The judging of the educational exhibits will also take place on this date. Saturday will be Georgia-Alabama day, and monster excursions from these states will bring thousands of people to the fair.

WASHINGTON'S PLAGUE SPOTS lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "They are the best all round tonic and cure for malaria I ever used," writes R. M.
James of Louisville, S. C. They cure stomach, liver, kidney and blood troubles and will prevent typhoid. Try them, 50c. Guaranteed by all drugstores.

SALE OF THE STAMPS

Being Applied to Aid of the Work Against Consumption in Florida Titusville, Fla., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Ad-hemar Brady, president of the Culture Club and Village Improvement Association, has written to the Florida Christmas stamp committee assuring the committee that this money raised by the Titusville club through the sale of stamps is to be invested so as to push the work against tuberculosis in the state of Florida. Mrs. Brady also advises the committee that next year they will be able to dispose of a great many more stamps. A request has also been forwarded for publications which may be used to instruct the families where several cases of tuberculosis are to be found in this community. It is especially desired that the directions against the spread of the infection shall be made known.

HEXAMETHYLENETETRAMINE
The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. Sold by all druggists.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c.

THOUGHTS ON THE DOCK AT SHELL ISLAND

Where the white gulls gather and part,
Circle and settle and scream;
Where the sails are as white as snowflakes;
When the green tide lifts, whispers and breaks,
With a boundless sweep and a surge sublime, Lies a lovely isle in this tropical clime.
All things around it change from hour to hour, No man can hold one bright wave or sunbeam in his power.
The silvered mist that meshes the moon above that meshes the surging, foaming shore
The whispering spray, like restless time, that grasps each happy day, still gives us prizes to add to memory's store.
So the restless tide, when it swells and ebbs away leaves a trail of treasures on the shore.
Oh whispering tide of the ocean, could you but translated be, Then to man would be given the mystery and secrets of the sea.
So the restless tide of life's ocean with a mystery all unknown.
Its run is bearing us daily to brighter shores where the why of this life will be known.
There are beautiful songs that are never sung;
There are lutes unsung and harps unstrung.
Ah, would I were an artist and were it mine,
To Jim upon the canvass such a view, Imperfect and crude though it might be,
Enchanted spot, Shell Island of Thee.

WIPE OUT THE FAMILY

An Alabama Murderer Heaped Crime on Crime in His Efforts to Avoid Detection

Huntsville, Ala., Feb. 2.—Bob Clements, a white farmer of Morgan county, has been arrested for the murder of the Edmondson family at Woodland Mills, and his wife has confessed and told all she knows of the mysterious tragedy. Her story is of a bloody crime that has seldom been equaled in Alabama.
Henry Edmondson, his wife, mother and three children, were killed in their homes one night last autumn and then the home and barn were burned, the bodies being cremated. For a time it was thought that Edmondson had become insane and committed the crime himself, but his bones were eventually found and his memory was cleared of the suspicion that had been attached to it.
For some time past suspicion has been attached to Bob Clements, because in the fireplace of a house that he and his family had recently vacated were found the partially burned remains of a bloody shirt and overalls.
A son of the man who found this evidence confided to his father a week or more ago that Clements had paid him 20 cents to remain away from the Edmondson place, where he usually went in his leisure moments, on the day before the tragedy. Luker told some of his neighbors of his suspicions and Clements heard of it. He threatened to kill Luker and his whole family, and on Friday afternoon he was arrested for making these threats.
Clements' wife thought that he had been arrested for the murder of the Edmondsons and she made a confession, telling all she knew about the crime. She said that Edmondson had found her husband and his own wife in Edmondson's barn, and when he showed fight Clements killed them both. Mad with the lust for blood, and almost insane in the desire to shield himself from suspicion, Clements killed the other members of the Edmondson family and left their bodies in the barn and home. He went back the next night and burned both buildings. Clements was taken to Decatur and lodged in jail.
